Legal Compliance Review Summary

HitTheRoadJackpot.com

Overview:

HitTheRoadJackpot.com runs short-term (1-7 day) prize-based sweepstakes with paid and free entries. This review confirms its legal standing under U.S. sweepstakes law after implementing key compliance upgrades.

Key Findings:

- * Free Alternative Method of Entry (AMOE) is available.
- * Clear, accurate "No Purchase Necessary" and prize odds disclosure.
- * Excludes residents of NY, FL, RI, and HI-states requiring bonding or registration.
- * Prize winner selection is random and documented.
- * Publicity waiver opt-out for TN residents recommended.
- * Proper tax documentation (W9/1099) is required for winnings $600+.
- * Privacy policy and data usage are compliant.
- * Governing law and arbitration clause included.

Recommendations:

- Add a TN-specific opt-out for publicity rights.
- Ensure entrants from excluded states (NY, FL, RI, HI) cannot access paid entry.
- Keep winner logs and entry records for 2-4 years.
- Review rules quarterly or when prize structure changes.

Final Verdict:

With the updated official rules and exclusions, HitTheRoadJackpot.com is now operating a legal, compliant sweepstakes platform consistent with U.S. promotional law.
